ARTE ET LABORE

THE POEM
Did ever on painter's canvas live
The power of his fancy's dream ?
Did ever poet's pen achieve Fruition of his theme ?
Did ever marble take the life
That the sculptor's soul conceived ?
Or ambition win in passion's strife
What its glowing hopes believed ?
Did ever racer's eager feet
Rest as he reached the goal,
Finding the prize achieved was meet
To satisfy the soul ?
Daniel Wilson

ELIZABETH
A Measure or Minuet in honour of England's glorious victories
"I must believe some miracles still be When Sydney's name I hear or face I see"
Ben Johnson
Ye eve of St John - in ye great halle of PENSHURST - ye lights burn low Ye great castle BELL tolls midnight & lo! at that magic sound
the pictures live MUSIC is floating in the air
Ye halle is filled with LIGHT & for one shorte hour ye courtlye dames and nobles mingle in ye statelie dance BUT darkness grows again & in the fadinge light they sadlye turne them each one to his place to wait a yeare the tolling of that bell that calls them back to life
